BYLAWS

CHAPTER I. MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. There shall be three categories of membership: junior member, regular member and fellow.

Section 2. Junior member: An individual who is engaged in suicide research under the direction of a mentor. Examples are postdoctoral trainees, doctoral or master's students. Junior members pay no dues but are eligible to receive the electronic version of the journal at no charge. The duration of a junior membership is limited to 3 years at the end of which they will automatically be considered for regular membership.

Section 3. Regular member: An individual who is engaged in ongoing research on suicide, either directly or as an adviser, reviewer or consultant in an academic institution or equivalent. Regular members pay annual dues and receive both the electronic and printed versions of the Academy's Journal. The term of a regular member is unlimited. Individuals who have been regular members for 7 or more years are automatically considered for promotion to Fellowship

Section 4. Fellow: An individual who has established a reputation as a significant contributor to knowledge in the field of suicidal behavior. This is exemplified by directing and designing innovative research, making significant contributions to the peer reviewed literature and providing guidance to trainees and developing scientists. Fellows are appointed from among existing regular members or de novo from the scientific community. The term of a fellow member is unlimited.

Section 5. a) There shall be a Membership Committee, multidisciplinary in its constituency, that shall be appointed by the president of the Academy with the approval of the Board of Directors. The Secretary of the Academy shall be the Chairman of the Membership Committee. b) Candidates for membership may be nominated by any Academy member and must be seconded by another member. Nominations shall be directed to the Chairman of the Membership Committee, who shall evaluate the nominee's credentials and shall submit a recommendation concerning the nominee to the Membership Committee, which shall consequently vote to accept or reject each nominee. The Membership Committee shall, along with its recommendation, indicate whether the nominee is applying for membership or associate status. c) Nominees receiving approving votes from a majority of the Membership Committee and approved by Board of Directors shall be elected to membership or associate status, whichever is applicable.

Section 6. Members and associates whose dues are in arrears for two consecutive years shall cease to be members of the Academy. Former members who have ceased to be members may be reinstated by approval of the Board of Directors upon full payment of the dues in arrears. The Board of Directors, according to criteria proposed by the Board and discussed with the members, may put a limit on the number of members of the Academy.

CHAPTER II. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. The Board of Directors of the Academy, hereinafter referred to as the Board, shall consist of the officers of the Academy.

Section 2. The procedure for nominating and electing the Board of Directors shall be as follows.

a) The Secretary-Treasurer of the Academy shall invite every member of the Academy to place the name or names of Academy members in nomination. It shall be the duty of the Secretary-Treasurer to verify that the nominee is a member in good standing and has consented to serve if elected.

b) The name of every member in good standing who is nominated and consents to serve shall appear on the ballot.

c) Voting shall be by secret ballot. Candidates receiving a majority of the votes shall be deemed elected. In the event of this not occurring on the first ballot the votes of the last candidate shall be redistributed until one candidate meets the criteria for election. The nomination and election procedure shall be supervised by the Board of Directors.

Section 3. All officers shall serve for a period of two years, until their successors are elected and installed, except that the Secretary-Treasurer shall serve for two terms of two (2) years.

CHAPTER III. DUES

Section 1. Dues for members and associates shall be determined annually by the Board of Directors. Dues are payable upon election to membership and must be paid annually.

Section 2. Dues shall cover an annual subscription to the Archives of Suicide Research.

Section 3. When a husband and wife are both either members or associate members of the Academy, the dues for one of them shall be one-half of the regular dues, without a subscription to the Archives of Suicide Research.

CHAPTER IV. MEETINGS

Section 1. There shall be a biennial meeting of the Membership as a minimum. Time and place of meetings shall be determined by the Board of Directors.

Section 2. All meetings of the Academy, including Membership, Board and Committee Meetings, shall be conducted in accordance with Robert's Rules of Order, revised, except where those rules are in conflict with these Bylaws or with regulations adopted by the membership.
